Excerpt: . . . 11 sional conduct and competency is vital to the future success of VA healthcare. Because of this, VA strongly opposes H. R. 4089, which would make matters relating to direct patient care, matters relat-ing to clinical competence, clinical healthcare providers subject to collective bargaining. We believe the current restriction on collec-tive bargaining rights is a sound compromise between the VAs mission to serve Americas veterans with the honor and care they deserve and the interests of Title 38 physicians, dentists and nurses in bargaining over conditions of their employment. I cannot overstate how important it is to continue to allow those responsible for the care and safety of our veterans to establish standards for professional conduct and competency at our hospitals and clinics. The VA very much believes that this proposed legisla-tion should not become law. Finally, VA also has serious concerns about H. R. 4463, which would mandate State licensure...
