Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Dreams and Reveries of a Quiet Man, Vol. 1 of 2: Consisting of the Little Genius and Other Essays Is there any person in the world who doubts that spirits of the air can assume a visible shape, and communicate viva voce with us poor mortals of the earth? Did not Cicero in one age, and Petrarch in another, receive supernatural information of the death of a distant friend? Did not a spirit inform Caesar s wife that she must tell Caesar if he attended the senate on the ides of March, he would be killed? And is there any body in this city who was not heard of the little old man who appeared to M S. W, Esq., of this city, attorney at law, and informed him of an event which at the same moment happened at a distance of more than twenty miles; and as soon as he had delivered his message, vanished through the key hole into thin air? No one therefore need to doubt me when I declare that I have lately seen a ghost, who has not only talked to me, but walked with me, and told me such things, and showed me such sights, as without supernatural intelligence, I never could have known. They are interesting to every man, woman and child, in this city; indeed, I think they are important not only to the United States, but to all mankind; and I will therefore endeavor to communicate them to the world as they have been communicated to me; though I must apprise the reader, that it is impossible for me to describe the sights I have seen,...
