The lord of all evil last took the vampire form in 1725. It was around the 1800 s that he found refuge in the old abbey ruins in Whitby, of North Yorkshire. The ruins became his stronghold, terrorising the inhabitants of this historical sea-side fishing town. After almost a century of reeking terror across most of the British Isles, he was finally driven back to the abyss. This story, is a journal of a modern day account of the return of Deofol, and the battle for survival of a small group of friends, which have been chosen by the dark lord, in an effort to reinstate his dominion on earth.
