[1811.] When envious Time, with unrelenting hand, Dissolves the union of some little band, A band connected by those hallowed ties, That from the birth of lettered friendship rise, Each lingering soul, before the parting sigh, One moment waits, to view the years gone by; Memory still loves to hover o'er the place, And all our pleasures and our pains retrace. The Student is the subject of my song; - Few are his pleasures, - yet those few are strong; Not the gay, transient moment of delight, Not hurried transports felt but in their flight.
