The Prioress of the Urstdins, of the House of Cose and Loudwi, by Almighty Gods Permission, was posiesed with an evil Spirit, who tormented her after a violent manner. To defend herself against his insulting Tyranny, she was accuftomd to crave St. Josephs Blessing (a Devotion pradtisd by many others) before the Exorcisms, as a dutiful Child would beg of a compassionate Parent. She also obligd herself to recite daily St. JasepVs Office, for a whole Year, and to perform some weekly Penance in his his Honour. Two or three Days after the Vow, the infernal Enemy was forcd away at the first Exorcism, leaving the Mark of a Cross on her Forehead, as the Priest had enjoyned him; and to the End it might be known, that twas at the Patriarchs Intercession, the Devil cryd out hideously, Joseph is corns and Leviathan must depart. Some Religious of the said Order of St. Ursula, had a Design to settle at Lambesa in Provence, the Inhabitants testifying an earnest Desire of their Coming and Company; wherefore they transported themselves thither, but met with unexpected Difficulties and Disappointments. They could not so much as find a proper House to hire, so resolvd to return back to Ah, from whence they came. In the mean time they had Recourse to St. Joseph they chose him for the Protector of their pious Intentions, and resolvd to recite after Mass his Litany, for nine Days together. Before the ninth...
