Excerpt: . That a list of questions and answers, setting forth in a plain and simple manner those doctrines regarded by us as fundamental to Christian life, with the Scripture authority therefore, be prepared by the General Conference for use in our families and churches. 4. That we insist upon the duty of personal effort, in some line or lines of Christian work, upon the part of all our membership, and so far as may be practicable, that pastor and people supply needy fields by holding meetings for preaching the Word, for prayer and conference, for Biblereadings and Bible-study. 5. Since each church is admitted into the General Conference upon the presentation of articles of faith and church covenant in harmony with the denominational expose of faith, and by subscribing thereto have solemnly promised to fulfill their requirements (see constitution of General Conference, art1cle 5th), therefore,...
