Hes going to marry her! murmured Retty, never taking eyes off Tess. How her face shows it! You be going to marry him asked Marian. Yes, said Tess. When Some day. They thought that this was evasiveness only. Yes--going to marry him--a gentleman! repeated Izz Huett. And by a sort of fascination the three girls, one after another, crept out of their beds, and came and stood barefooted round Tess. Retty put her hands upon Tesss shoulders, as if to realize her friends corporeality after such a miracle, and the other two laid their arms round her waist, all looking into her face. How it do seem! Almost more than I can think of! said Izz Huett. Marian kissed Tess. Yes, she murmured as she withdrew her lips. Was that because of love for her, or because other lips have touched there by now continued Izz drily to Marian. I wasnt thinking o that, said Marian simply. I was ony feeling all the strangeness ot--that she is to be his wife, and nobody else. I dont say nay to it, nor either of us, because we did not think of it--only loved him. Still, nobody else is to marry him in the world--no fine lady, nobody in jewels and gold, in silks and satins; but she who do live like we. Are you sure you dont dislike me for it said Tess in a low voice. They hung about her in their scant white...
