Jessica Kingsley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. Her appreciation of the lifetime needs of mentally ill people, and others with longstanding intractable conditions, whose vulnerability is exacerbated in later life, is very moving. She writes with great wisdom distilled from wide-ranging scholarship and a lifetime of practice as a music therapist, grief counsellor and multi professional team member employed in many varied health and social care contexts.' - PSIGE (Psychologists' Special Interest Group In Elderly People) Newsletter 'This book would make a useful introduction to the issues faced by people as old age advances. It is sensitively...
