Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Welcome Reader, to the haunting tales of Tidy Vale Haven of Rest s deceased and those nearly-so, told to you by a mysterious old black grave digger, Alvin Grubbins. You ll find he s on speaking terms with nearly all of them, but most after they were planted. Tidy Vale may seem like an old grave yard to some, getting its first two bodies shortly after the War between the States, known to most up north as the Civil War. But Tidy Vale is old enough to hold some 3,000 souls, though there are quite a few who haven t been counted in the total and some who are unwelcome.at least by many of the living.and the dead. In this part of Southeastern Oklahoma s unique setting you ll find more than just the snakes, weeds and bugs, the heat and the humidity. Alvin will tell you about the ignorance, lust, greed, revenge, murder and prejudice that makes this little hell-hole in Little Dixie so special. Besides the Yankee army mule and its two dead human companions who started it all, you ll meet the old wrecker driver with lots to tell about what happens after the mourners leave, the spoiled little rich girl who always got whatever she wanted.even after being dead for over 50 years, the bigot who learned the hard way what bigotry really was, the used car dealer who thought he d make a killing at home, the other grave digger who dug under the cemetery.opening caskets and corpses, the frail old man cutting up a relative in a dog food factory, the thief dying to make his fortune, the oversexed woman who got...
