Not illustrated. 1910 Excerpt: .the prayer of said petition for the reasons stated in the answer filed in said case, which are the same as the reasons stated in this answer. That the conditions of said place called Laneville have not changed and there is no more necessity at this time for requiring said depot to be opened than there was in 1908, when the application aforesaid was heard and denied by this Board. Wherefore, this respondent asks that the complaint be dismissed. A copy of such answer was forwarded, with the following letter: With further reference to your complaint asking for the opening of depot at Laneville, we enclose you herewith copy of the answer of the respondent company for your information. Kindly note the statement of the respondent that there is another depot located within two or three miles of the station of Laneville, that there are no houses at Laneville, and that the amount of business afforded the respondent company at that station is not sufficient to justify the employment of an agent. You will please understand that any order of the Board requiring a railroad company to grant additional facilities to its patrons must be made upon a sufficient amount of business afforded the company to warrant the relief prayed for, as if no such showing can be made the order of the Board is not enforceable in the courts, and the making of such an order would simply involve the state in useless and expensive...
